

Welcome to Stockholm County!

How to seek medical care if you become ill

If you need to seek medical care here in Stockholm County, you can find updated information on 1177.se/stockholm.

This is the official website for information about health and medical care in Sweden. This website provides information on medical care in the event of illness, injury and emergency support services. You will also find information about COVID-19 and vaccination.

You can also call the number +46 771 11 77 00, or contact your nearest healthcare centre (vårdcentral). In case of emergency, always call the emergency number 112.

You can find the information in English here:

